Subject: notes on Charles M. Gibbs

Hi. Will do this now so I don't forget to give these notes I have written down.

Charles M. Gibbs was a brickmason, cobbler, carpenter, salesman in Glenn Rose, Texas (I have all kinds of different spellings for Glenn Rose). Charles fell from a scaffold while working as a brickmason. Had to have leg amputated. After that he drinked a lot and had to take heroin for pain. His wife Mattie left him and his children would not think or talk kindly of him. Died from a self inflicted gun shot with a 28 caliber pistol just a few minutes after being taken from the ambulance into the hospital. I don't have down which leg it was he had to have amputated.

Was fun talking to you today. Talk again another time. Take care. Love. Maryalice

Spring Creek Tenn August 5th 1873

Dear Brothers and sisters and Families,

I this evening take the time to drop you a few lines to let you know how we are getting a long, but more espeshley to inform you all of the Death of our Father. He departed this life the 2nd. of this month whitch was last Satterday 15 minutes before 12 Oclock. He suffered a great deal but bore it with patience untill the last & sayed he was resined to go but like all other people desired to live but he sed he had nothing to live for but was resined for God's will to be done.

He was taccon with a bad cold the 4th sunday in April and was never well any more. He Was on the decline untill his Death . He had the consumtion and spit up more than any body I ever seen with it. 10 days before his death he began to spit blood and dark flem. We waited on him the best we could. I do not think that he liked for any thing that would have been any advantage to him. He first had Woolfolk and then changed to Herron and they both exprest their self that they could not do him any good but momentary he talked to Mister Dearmoor about Dying and expresed him self that he was reddy to go but dreaded the sting of Death. We had him very obavantly put away and his Funeral will be attended by Moses Senter and all, so Mother's at the same time.This is all according to his request.

This is alI I will write at this time. This leaves the rest of us very well. All of the connection is weIl as far as I know, so nothing more at this time but will write more lengty soon when I feel more like it.

We have not herd from you aIl in two or three months.Would like to get a letter from you all. Write as soon as you get this so no more at pressent.
Onlv as ever your brother untill death

S.E. Johnson to W. D. and J. B. Johnson and famlies

Family Relationship to Daniel Boone, Abraham Lincoln

Eddie Pitman is very distantly related to Daniel Boone and Abraham Lincoln, who are also descendants of Robert Harris and his wife, Mary Claibourne Rice Harris.

"In Peck's Life of Daniel Boone we find that, 'Immediately upon this adjustment of Indian affairs, several companies of hunters from Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina, hearing of the abundance of game along the headwaters of the Tennessee River, penetrated the wilderness in their favorite pursuit. At the head of one of these companies was Daniel Boone, from the Yadkin settlements, who ranged through the valleys of the headwaters of the Holston, in the southwestern part of Virgnia. In 1764 we find him, with another company of hunters, on Rock Castle, another branch of Cumberland River within the present boundaries of Kentucky, employed, as the stated, by a party of land speculators, to ascertain and report concerning the country in that quarter.

"In 1765, he explored as far south as Pensacola, Florida, but was dissuaded by his wife from settling there." (1)

Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission - Mere mention of the name Daniel Boone conjures images of an American icon: trailblazer of the Wilderness Road, preeminent Kentucky frontiersman, defender of early settlements, a crack shot with a long rifle Boone's real and folkloric exploits are so well-known that his character is often overlooked, as is the fact that his personality took shape during a boyhood not spent in "Kentucke" but in Berks County's picturesque Oley Valley. The Daniel Boone Homestead at Baumstown, southeast of Reading, interprets the way of life of the Boone family and later eighteenth-century residents, highlighting the cultural and environmental influences that shaped Daniel Boone's future and took the area from frontier to developed settlements. Daniel Boone's ancestors arrived in southeastern Pennsylvania, following an established Quaker migration pattern from England. His father, Squire Boone (1696-1765)--Squire his given name, and not an honorific title--left Devonshire for America in 1713. Squire Boone, traveling shipboard as cabin boy, had been sent with his brother and sister by their father, George Boone, to help decide if the entire family should emigrate. The Boones had contacts with the members of the Society of Friends who lived in Abington (in present-day Montgomery County), where they first settled, and from which they sent favorable reports back home. The remaining Boones arrived four years later, and the family moved ten miles northwest to Gwynedd.

In Gwynedd, Squire Boone met Sarah Morgan (1700-1777), an American-born woman of Welsh Quaker background. They married in 1720 and lived first in Gwynedd, then in Chalfont, Bucks County, before they purchased two hundred and fifty acres in the Oley Valley in 1730. (The valley was part of Philadelphia County until 1752, when it became part of the new Berks County.) His father and brothers had already relocated to the area and enjoyed prominence in business, government, and the Exeter Friends Meeting. (2)

The Harris Family

I. The first known member of the family was MAJOR ROBERT HARRIS (born 1630; died 1700), who emigrated from Wales during the period from 1652-1659, and settled on the James River, near Weyanoke, in Virginia. By some it is thought that he was employed in the tobacco house of a man named Rice, who soon died, and that Harris married his widow. At any rate about 1650 he married Mrs. Mary (Claibourne) Rice, whose mother was Elizabeth Butler, and her father, William Claibourne (b. 1587; d. 1676). (a)

(William Claibourne came to Virginia in 1621, and was of royal descent. Through the De Toneys and Cliffords, he was descended from Edward III, King of England, Duncan and Malcom (b), Kings of Scotland, Odin and other kings of Escardia and Eric, King of the Goths 751 B. C. He was appointed Surveyor General at the solicitation of his cousin Ann, Countess of Pembroke. He was a member of the Virginia Council; Secretary of the Colony from 1625-1635, and again from 1652-1660. In 1642 the king (Eng.) describing him as "My well beloved servant," appointed him Treasurer of the Colony for life. Four ancestors of William Claiborne signed the petition demanding of King John the Magna Charta.) (c)

Robert1 Harris and Mary (Claiborne-Rice) Harris had a son:

II. WILLIAM2 HARRIS, b. 1652, who also engaged in the tobacco trade. He married Temperance Overton, a daughter of Mary Walters and William Overton, a wealthy tobacco grower, the son of Colonel Overton, who commanded a Brigade of Ironsides under Oliver Cromwell. William Harris died 8 Mar., 1687, at the age of 35, and was buried in an old Colonial Church at Weyanoke. A bronze tablet marked his burial place. The church long ago went to ruins, and on 1 July, 1875, the tablet was taken to Norfolk, Va., and placed in the wall of St. Paul's old church. The tablet is engraved as follows:—

"Here lyeth ye body of William Harris
who departed this life ye 8th day of March, 1687 Aged 35 years.
On the 1st day of July 1875, this stone and tablet was brought from Weyanoke, on the James River. It was found among ruins of an old Colonial Church."

To William 2 Harris and his wife, Temperance Overton, were born three sons:—

1. Christopher Harris, I.
2. Overton Harris, m. Ann Nelson.
3. Major Robert Harris, II, b. 168-; d. between 18 June 1765 and 8 Aug 1765. (His will is dated 18 June 1765 and was probated 8 Aug 1765.) M. Mourning Glenn. In 1750, he took up land in Brown's Cove, Albermarle Co., Va., and was one of the early settlers on Doyle's River. To him and his wife were born ten children, but we are interested particularly in Christopher Harris II, m. (1) Mary Dabney, and (2) Agnes McCord. He emigrated from Albermarle County, Va. to Ky., sometime in the period 1780-1790. He travelled over a great part of Ky., and entered lands on the Licking River, but settled in Madison County, where he owned lands on Silver, Muddy, and Downing Creeks, in addition to a large body of land in Albermarle County, Va. He owned a large number of slaves that he had brought to Ky.

(Mary Dabney, the first wife of Christopher Harris, was descended from Theodore Agrippa D'Aubigne, a French Huguenot, born 1550 in France. Her father was Cornelius D'Aubigne or Dabney [d. 1764 or '65l. He was the eldest of three brothers, who after the Edict of Nantes, left France and went to Wales. In 1715 the three brothers emigrated to America and Cornelius settled near Piping Tree Ferry, on the York River in Hanover Co., Va. Mary's mother was Sarah Jennings, the 2nd wife [married Apr 1721] of Cornelius Dabney. Sarah, said to be the niece of the Duchess of Marlborough, was the daughter of Charles Jennings; granddaughter of Robert Jennings; and great granddaughter of Sir Humphrey Jennings of County Middlesex, England.

Cornelius Dabney at his death left a will which was probated in Hanover County [Va.] Court, in 1765.) (First Marriage of Christopher Harris.) 1.Dabney Harris m. ____ . 2. Sarah Harris m. James Martin. 3.Robert Harris, b. 24 Aug 1749, in Albermarle Co., Va; d. 18 Nov 1833, in Madison Co., Ky.; m. Nancy Grubbs (b. 24 Nov 1749; d. 1835). They went to Ky., from Va., in the migration of 1780-1790, and settled in Madison County. Issue: 1. Nancy Harris, m. 22 Oct 1805, William Stone. 2. Kate Harris, m. James Stone. 3. Mary Harris, m. 13 Jan 1802, William Woods. 4.Tyree Harris, m. 2 June 1803, Sally Garland. 5. Higgason Harris, m. 16 Dec 1800, Nancy Garland. 6. Elizabeth Harris, m. John or James Berry...."

THE LINCOLN FAMILY

(The information contained in this sketch was all taken from the "Ancestry of Abraham Lincoln,," by Les and Hutchison.)

For many years nothing was known of the Lincoln family prior to their emigration to this country, from England, in 1637. Later, through the fortunate finding of some old court records, the family history was traced back to:

I. ROBERT 1 LINCOLN, of Hingham Co., Norfolk, England, whose will, dated 1540, was probated 3 Sept., 1543; married Johan (Cowper?). Their son was:

II. ROBERT 2 LINCOLN, of Hingham and Thetford, eldest son and heir of Robert (I); will dated 14 and probated 29 Jan., 1556; m. Margaret Alberye, and had a son:

III. RICHARD LINCOLN, of Hingham, Swanton Morley, and Great Witchingham, eldest son and heir of Robert (II), was under age in 1556; buried 23 Dec, 1620; will dated 3 Jan., 1616, probated 24 Feb., 1621; m. (1) about 1574, Elizabeth Remching, eldest daughter of Richard Remching (d. 1567, buried in Carbrooke Church; Lord of Manor of Carbrooke) and his wife, Elizabeth (d. 1595, at Wymonham). Their second daughter was baptised 23 Sept., 1549, so Elizabeth must have been born at least a year before that. She died soon after her marriage, leaving one son, Edward, and her husband, Richard, married three times more before his death.

IV. EDWARD 4 LINCOLN, second son and heir of Richard (III) (the first son having died), of Hingham, b. abt. 1575; buried 11 Feb., 1640; married and left a son.

V. SAMUEL* LINCOLN, of Hingham, England, Norfolk, and Hingham, Mass., the youngest son of Edward (IV), baptised 24 Aug., 1622; d. 26 May, 1690, aged 71; m. Martha (d. 10 Apr., 1693). He was apprenticed to Francis Lawes, a weaver of Norwich, probably abt. 1633; sailed with his master to New England in the "John and Dorothey" of Ipswich, or in the "Rose" of Yarmouth. Landed in Boston 20 June, 1637. He had eleven children but we are interested only in:

VI. MORDECAI 6 LINCOLN, the fourth son and child of Samuel (V), b. 14 June, 1657, at Hingham, Mass., where he resided until 1700, when he removed to Scituate. He was a "blacksmith"; m. 1st, Sarah Jones (daughter of Abraham and Sarah [Whitman] Jones, of Hull, Mass.); who died probably soon after their removal to Scituate; m. 2nd, Mary Gannett, a widow, who (d. 19 Apr., 1745, at the age of 79.) Mordecai Lincoln died very suddenly "of an apploplexy", 8 Nov., 1727 in his 71st year. Will dated 3 May, 1727, probated 27 Mar., 1728. THE LINVILLE FAMILY

The first of this family of whom we know, was William Linville, whose wife was Ellender Bryan, a sister of Colonel Samuel Bryan, William Bryan and others, and a daughter of Morgan and Martha (Strode) Bryan. (See the "Bryan Family" for a further sketch.)

The Linvilles lived in the Boone and Bryan settlement on the Yadkin, coming to the Yadkin country with the Bryans from Va., but at what time is not known.

William Linville's health became poor, and hoping the change would benefit him, decided to go and keep camp for his son, John, and another young man, John Williams, who were going up into the mountains that fall (1766), to hunt for meat and pelts. They took several horses with them to use as pack animals, and pitched camp some fifty or sixty miles up in the Blue Ridge Mountains, 10 miles below Linville Falls. Just before daybreak one morning, William Linville roused the two young men, telling them he had just dreamed the Indians had come and massacred them. The dream was so real to him that he urged them to hasten to escape, saying he was too feeble to make the attempt. He had scarcely finished talking, and the young men had had no time to make any move toward escape, when the Indians, who must have been in hiding and heard the conversation, poured in a volley of shot. The two Linvilles— William and his son, John— were both killed, and the other young man received a bullet in his thigh. This injured the bone, but did not break it, and in the darkness and confusion he escaped.

Some time after the death of her husband, Mrs. Ellender (Bryan) Linville went to Kentucky to live with her children, and died there about 1792, in Madison County.

William1 and Ellender (Bryan) Linville had a number of children, the names of those known being:

1. John Linville, who was killed by Indians at the same time as his father. 2. William Linville, who went to Kentucky to live, but never married.

3. Morgan Linville, who married his cousin Bryan, daughter of Colonel Samuel Bryan. He had a son: Coleman Linville, who lived near Strode's Station, on Stoner Creek, in Clark County, Ky.

4. Nancy or Ann Linville, m. about 1766, George Boone (b. 173-; d. 14 Nov., 1820), a son of Squire4 and Sarah (Morgan) Boone, and a brother of Daniel Boone.

Family Relationship to Daniel Boone, Abraham Lincoln

Eddie Pitman is very distantly related to Daniel Boone and Abraham Lincoln, who are also descendants of Robert Harris and his wife, Mary Claibourne Rice Harris.

"In Peck's Life of Daniel Boone we find that, 'Immediately upon this adjustment of Indian affairs, several companies of hunters from Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina, hearing of the abundance of game along the headwaters of the Tennessee River, penetrated the wilderness in their favorite pursuit. At the head of one of these companies was Daniel Boone, from the Yadkin settlements, who ranged through the valleys of the headwaters of the Holston, in the southwestern part of Virgnia. In 1764 we find him, with another company of hunters, on Rock Castle, another branch of Cumberland River within the present boundaries of Kentucky, employed, as the stated, by a party of land speculators, to ascertain and report concerning the country in that quarter.

"In 1765, he explored as far south as Pensacola, Florida, but was dissuaded by his wife from settling there." (1)

Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission - Mere mention of the name Daniel Boone conjures images of an American icon: trailblazer of the Wilderness Road, preeminent Kentucky frontiersman, defender of early settlements, a crack shot with a long rifle Boone's real and folkloric exploits are so well-known that his character is often overlooked, as is the fact that his personality took shape during a boyhood not spent in "Kentucke" but in Berks County's picturesque Oley Valley. The Daniel Boone Homestead at Baumstown, southeast of Reading, interprets the way of life of the Boone family and later eighteenth-century residents, highlighting the cultural and environmental influences that shaped Daniel Boone's future and took the area from frontier to developed settlements. Daniel Boone's ancestors arrived in southeastern Pennsylvania, following an established Quaker migration pattern from England. His father, Squire Boone (1696-1765)--Squire his given name, and not an honorific title--left Devonshire for America in 1713. Squire Boone, traveling shipboard as cabin boy, had been sent with his brother and sister by their father, George Boone, to help decide if the entire family should emigrate. The Boones had contacts with the members of the Society of Friends who lived in Abington (in present-day Montgomery County), where they first settled, and from which they sent favorable reports back home. The remaining Boones arrived four years later, and the family moved ten miles northwest to Gwynedd.

In Gwynedd, Squire Boone met Sarah Morgan (1700-1777), an American-born woman of Welsh Quaker background. They married in 1720 and lived first in Gwynedd, then in Chalfont, Bucks County, before they purchased two hundred and fifty acres in the Oley Valley in 1730. (The valley was part of Philadelphia County until 1752, when it became part of the new Berks County.) His father and brothers had already relocated to the area and enjoyed prominence in business, government, and the Exeter Friends Meeting. (2)

The Harris Family

I. The first known member of the family was MAJOR ROBERT HARRIS (born 1630; died 1700), who emigrated from Wales during the period from 1652-1659, and settled on the James River, near Weyanoke, in Virginia. By some it is thought that he was employed in the tobacco house of a man named Rice, who soon died, and that Harris married his widow. At any rate about 1650 he married Mrs. Mary (Claibourne) Rice, whose mother was Elizabeth Butler, and her father, William Claibourne (b. 1587; d. 1676). (a)

(William Claibourne came to Virginia in 1621, and was of royal descent. Through the De Toneys and Cliffords, he was descended from Edward III, King of England, Duncan and Malcom (b), Kings of Scotland, Odin and other kings of Escardia and Eric, King of the Goths 751 B. C. He was appointed Surveyor General at the solicitation of his cousin Ann, Countess of Pembroke. He was a member of the Virginia Council; Secretary of the Colony from 1625-1635, and again from 1652-1660. In 1642 the king (Eng.) describing him as "My well beloved servant," appointed him Treasurer of the Colony for life. Four ancestors of William Claiborne signed the petition demanding of King John the Magna Charta.) (c)

Robert1 Harris and Mary (Claiborne-Rice) Harris had a son:

II. WILLIAM2 HARRIS, b. 1652, who also engaged in the tobacco trade. He married Temperance Overton, a daughter of Mary Walters and William Overton, a wealthy tobacco grower, the son of Colonel Overton, who commanded a Brigade of Ironsides under Oliver Cromwell. William Harris died 8 Mar., 1687, at the age of 35, and was buried in an old Colonial Church at Weyanoke. A bronze tablet marked his burial place. The church long ago went to ruins, and on 1 July, 1875, the tablet was taken to Norfolk, Va., and placed in the wall of St. Paul's old church. The tablet is engraved as follows:—

"Here lyeth ye body of William Harris
who departed this life ye 8th day of March, 1687 Aged 35 years.
On the 1st day of July 1875, this stone and tablet was brought from Weyanoke, on the James River. It was found among ruins of an old Colonial Church."

To William 2 Harris and his wife, Temperance Overton, were born three sons:—

1. Christopher Harris, I.
2. Overton Harris, m. Ann Nelson.
3. Major Robert Harris, II, b. 168-; d. between 18 June 1765 and 8 Aug 1765. (His will is dated 18 June 1765 and was probated 8 Aug 1765.) M. Mourning Glenn. In 1750, he took up land in Brown's Cove, Albermarle Co., Va., and was one of the early settlers on Doyle's River. To him and his wife were born ten children, but we are interested particularly in Christopher Harris II, m. (1) Mary Dabney, and (2) Agnes McCord. He emigrated from Albermarle County, Va. to Ky., sometime in the period 1780-1790. He travelled over a great part of Ky., and entered lands on the Licking River, but settled in Madison County, where he owned lands on Silver, Muddy, and Downing Creeks, in addition to a large body of land in Albermarle County, Va. He owned a large number of slaves that he had brought to Ky.

(Mary Dabney, the first wife of Christopher Harris, was descended from Theodore Agrippa D'Aubigne, a French Huguenot, born 1550 in France. Her father was Cornelius D'Aubigne or Dabney [d. 1764 or '65l. He was the eldest of three brothers, who after the Edict of Nantes, left France and went to Wales. In 1715 the three brothers emigrated to America and Cornelius settled near Piping Tree Ferry, on the York River in Hanover Co., Va. Mary's mother was Sarah Jennings, the 2nd wife [married Apr 1721] of Cornelius Dabney. Sarah, said to be the niece of the Duchess of Marlborough, was the daughter of Charles Jennings; granddaughter of Robert Jennings; and great granddaughter of Sir Humphrey Jennings of County Middlesex, England.

Cornelius Dabney at his death left a will which was probated in Hanover County [Va.] Court, in 1765.) (First Marriage of Christopher Harris.) 1.Dabney Harris m. ____ . 2. Sarah Harris m. James Martin. 3.Robert Harris, b. 24 Aug 1749, in Albermarle Co., Va; d. 18 Nov 1833, in Madison Co., Ky.; m. Nancy Grubbs (b. 24 Nov 1749; d. 1835). They went to Ky., from Va., in the migration of 1780-1790, and settled in Madison County. Issue: 1. Nancy Harris, m. 22 Oct 1805, William Stone. 2. Kate Harris, m. James Stone. 3. Mary Harris, m. 13 Jan 1802, William Woods. 4.Tyree Harris, m. 2 June 1803, Sally Garland. 5. Higgason Harris, m. 16 Dec 1800, Nancy Garland. 6. Elizabeth Harris, m. John or James Berry...."

THE LINCOLN FAMILY

(The information contained in this sketch was all taken from the "Ancestry of Abraham Lincoln,," by Les and Hutchison.)

For many years nothing was known of the Lincoln family prior to their emigration to this country, from England, in 1637. Later, through the fortunate finding of some old court records, the family history was traced back to:

I. ROBERT 1 LINCOLN, of Hingham Co., Norfolk, England, whose will, dated 1540, was probated 3 Sept., 1543; married Johan (Cowper?). Their son was:

II. ROBERT 2 LINCOLN, of Hingham and Thetford, eldest son and heir of Robert (I); will dated 14 and probated 29 Jan., 1556; m. Margaret Alberye, and had a son:

III. RICHARD LINCOLN, of Hingham, Swanton Morley, and Great Witchingham, eldest son and heir of Robert (II), was under age in 1556; buried 23 Dec, 1620; will dated 3 Jan., 1616, probated 24 Feb., 1621; m. (1) about 1574, Elizabeth Remching, eldest daughter of Richard Remching (d. 1567, buried in Carbrooke Church; Lord of Manor of Carbrooke) and his wife, Elizabeth (d. 1595, at Wymonham). Their second daughter was baptised 23 Sept., 1549, so Elizabeth must have been born at least a year before that. She died soon after her marriage, leaving one son, Edward, and her husband, Richard, married three times more before his death.

IV. EDWARD 4 LINCOLN, second son and heir of Richard (III) (the first son having died), of Hingham, b. abt. 1575; buried 11 Feb., 1640; married and left a son.

V. SAMUEL* LINCOLN, of Hingham, England, Norfolk, and Hingham, Mass., the youngest son of Edward (IV), baptised 24 Aug., 1622; d. 26 May, 1690, aged 71; m. Martha (d. 10 Apr., 1693). He was apprenticed to Francis Lawes, a weaver of Norwich, probably abt. 1633; sailed with his master to New England in the "John and Dorothey" of Ipswich, or in the "Rose" of Yarmouth. Landed in Boston 20 June, 1637. He had eleven children but we are interested only in:

VI. MORDECAI 6 LINCOLN, the fourth son and child of Samuel (V), b. 14 June, 1657, at Hingham, Mass., where he resided until 1700, when he removed to Scituate. He was a "blacksmith"; m. 1st, Sarah Jones (daughter of Abraham and Sarah [Whitman] Jones, of Hull, Mass.); who died probably soon after their removal to Scituate; m. 2nd, Mary Gannett, a widow, who (d. 19 Apr., 1745, at the age of 79.) Mordecai Lincoln died very suddenly "of an apploplexy", 8 Nov., 1727 in his 71st year. Will dated 3 May, 1727, probated 27 Mar., 1728. He had six children, of whom we are interested in: MO N' , 1st wife HANNA SALTER, 2nd wife MARY.

George Boone IV, m. Deborah Howell. John Lincoln, m. Rebecca

VII. MORDECAI 7 LINCOLN, eldest son of Mordecai (VI), born 24 Apr., 1686 at Hingham, Mass.; d. 1736, in Amity, Philadelphia County (now Berks), Pa. His death occurred before 18 Oct., 1736; m. 1st, before 1714, Hannah Salter, dau. of Richard and Sarah (Browne) Salter, of Freehold, N. J.; and 2nd, Mary . He removed to Monmouth County,

N. J., with his brother, Abraham, prior to 1714, where he acquired 500 or 600 acres of land. Extended signaling system and method

Patent number: 8594314
Abstract: Embodiments are described that include a "front end" device located remotely from a local telephone location. The front end filters DC and AC current on a telephone line to separate these signals and passes a DC current through a low resistance Low Pass Filter without traditional resistance or current limiting means. The front end also provides signaling capability isolated from the DC and audio channels by a High Pass Filter. Some embodiments also include a "back end" unit located near a local telephone location. The "back end" unit filters the DC and AC currents into at least two DC current streams. One of the DC current streams provides sufficient current to power a local telephone. The other stream(s) provides current sufficient to power an auxiliary device. The "back end" device may also provide signaling isolated from the DC and audio channels that is complementary to the "front end" signaling.
Type: Grant
Filed: September 3, 2009
Issued: November 26, 2013
Assignee: Cottonwood Creek Technologies
Inventors: Dwight W. Kitchin, Alan K. Schott

Method and apparatus for detecting and responding to events occurring on remote telephone

Patent number: 8135127
Abstract: A process and a system are disclosed for detecting activity, e.g., three way calling, call forwarding, or the like, during a phone call. The process includes, and the system is configured for, establishing the call path between a first party and a second party, adding a reference tone to the call path, observing a reflected tone from the call path, and determining a relationship between the reference tone and the reflected tone. Information relating to the relationship may be reported for further analysis.
Type: Grant
Filed: November 17, 2005
Issued: March 13, 2012
Assignee: Securus Technologies, Inc.
Inventors: Dwight W. Kitchin, Scott D. Passe

Method and apparatus for detecting an attempted three-way conference call on a remote telephone

Patent number: 5539812
Abstract: Methods and apparatus for use in connection with a telecommunication between a local telephone and a remote telephone, which are capable of detecting whether one of the parties to the communication has attempted to initiate a three-way, i.e., conference, call by using a hook-flash signal. The apparatus includes a low pass filter for passing energy having frequencies below about 500 Hz, and an energy detector for detecting a specific electrical energy pulse characteristic of the hook-flash having passed through the low pass filter. The existence of the hook-flash is confirmed by digital signal processing equipment which identifies a rapid drop-off in energy also characteristic of the hook-flash signal. Optionally, the hook-flash may be further confirmed by including software for cooperating with the energy detector to ascertain whether sound has occurred in the telecommunication during a predetermined period following the first hook-flash signal.
Type: Grant
Filed: November 8, 1994
Issued: July 23, 1996
Inventors: Dwight W. Kitchin, Alan K. Schott, John C. Johnson, Clive L. Smith

Method and apparatus for detecting and responding to hook flash events occurring on a remote telephone

Patent number: 5319702
Abstract: Methods and apparatus for use in conjunction with a telephone or with equipment in telecommunication with a remote telephone are disclosed. The apparatus provides an indication as to whether a remote party using the remote telephone has performed a specific act causing the generation of a hook flash-type signal which is detected by the apparatus. The apparatus includes a low pass filter for passing energy having frequencies below about 500 Hz, and energy detector for detecting a specific electrical energy pulse having been filtered by the low pass filter and having a predetermined minimum magnitude. The apparatus also includes software for cooperating with the energy detector to detect a specific event(s) occurring on the telephone line during a predetermined maximum time window following the detection of a specific pulse. The detection of the specific event(s) provides an indication as to whether the remote party has performed a specific act such as attempting to initiate a 3-way conference call.
Type: Grant
Filed: July 29, 1992
Issued: June 7, 1994
Assignee: Tele-Matic Corporation
Inventors: Dwight W. Kitchin, Terry D. Johnson, Alan K. Schott, Scott D. Passe

Fluid pump

Patent number: 4573888
Abstract: This invention relates to an improved fluid pump. The pump is of the type, wherein a reciprocating motor acts in concert with supply and exhaust valves to pump fluid from a source to its destination. In the preferred embodiment, the motor comprises a reciprocating diaphragm and the supply and exhaust valves comprise a single resilient plate with individual valve members formed as cutouts therein. The valve plate is sandwiched between two plates which form the associated porting. The interaction between the various ports on the valve plates results in improved sealing effect for the valves.
Type: Grant
Filed: April 4, 1985
Issued: March 4, 1986
Assignee: Aspen Laboratories, Inc.
Inventor: Dwight W. Kitchin

Automatic tourniquet with improved pressure resolution

Patent number: 4520820
Abstract: An automatic tourniquet including a mechanism for inflating and deflating a cuff, a pressure sensing mechanism, and a mechanism for displaying the pressure. The pressure sensing mechanism includes a pressure transducer producing a pair of digital signals, and a mechanism for adjusting the signals so that the pressures at which the transitions between the digital quanta occur for one signal are different from the pressures at which the transitions occur for the other signal. The mechanism for adjusting includes a mechanism for setting the signals to be equal at a selected pressure, and a mechanism for offsetting the signals from each other by a voltage corresponding to one-half a digital quantum. The offset signals are summed by a microprocessor to produce a display with twice the resolution of the individual signals.
Type: Grant
Filed: April 15, 1983
Issued: June 4, 1985
Assignee: Aspen Laboratories, Inc.
Inventors: Dwight W. Kitchin, Michael R. Manes

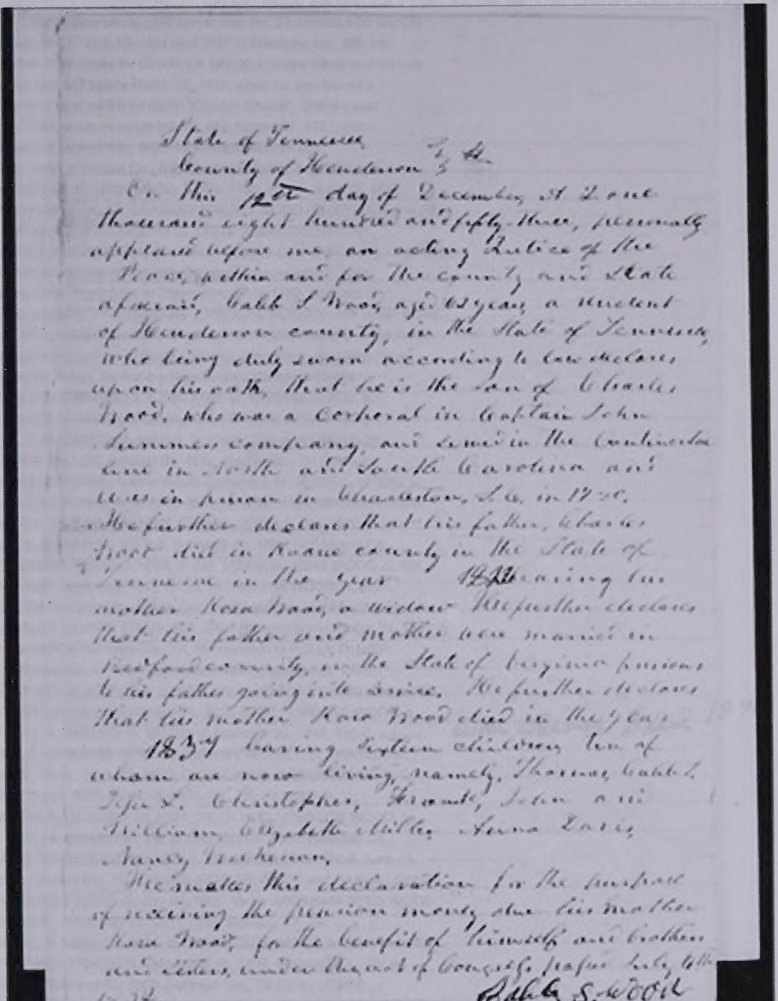
Descendants of Charles Wood 1688



State of Tennessee } ss
County of Henderson }

On this 12th day of December A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty three, personally appeared before me, an acting Justice of the Peace, within and for the county and State aforesaid, Caleb S Wood, aged 63 years, a resident of Henderson county, in the State of Tennessee who being duly sworn according to law declares upon his oath, that he is the son of Charles Wood, who was a Corporal in Captain John Summers company, and served in the Continental line in North and South Carolina and was in prison in Charleston, S.C. in 1780. He further declares that his father, Charles Wood died in Roane county in the State of Tennessee in the year 1822 leaving his mother Rosa Wood, a widow. He further declares that his father and mother were married in Bedford county, in the State of Virginia previous to his father going into service. He further declares that his mother Rose Wood died in the year 1837 leaving sixteen children ten of whom are now living, namely, Thomas, Caleb S. Isaac L. Christopher, Frank, John and William, Elizabeth Miller, Anna Davis, Nancy Buchanan.

He makes this declaration for the purpose of receiving the pension money due his mother Rosa Wood, for the benefit of himself and brothers and sisters, under the act of Congress passed July 4th 1832.

Description:
This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1860 United States Federal Census, the Eighth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age as of the census day, sex, color; birthplace, occupation of males over age fifteen, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1860 Federal Census. Learn more...

Sarah was the daughter of John Massey and Eliza Johnson Massey. She married William Joseph Littlepage June 4, 1872 in Madison Co. Tenn. She and William parented 13 children before she died in 1896. She is buried in the Center Valley Cemetery, Hamilton Co. Texas. The cemetery is fenced, but for some reason, her stone is on the outside of the fence... It stands alone. outside the gate. S. W. BURKE, retired farmer and loan agent, Sec. 6; P. O. Bloomington. The subject of this sketch was born in St. Lawrence Co., N. Y., May 20, 1824. He was brought up to farm labor until he attained his majority; he then worked at the ship-carpenter's trade four years, and afterward followed the life of a sailor four years, most of the time upon the lakes. In the spring of 1850, he went to California, and followed mining one year, when he engaged in dealing in provisions and mining supplies four years, meeting with fair success. In the spring of 1855, he returned to Jefferson Co., N. Y., and purchased a farm, and engaged in farming for fifteen years, a portion of which time he resided in Watertown, N. Y. In the spring of 1865, he emigrated to Illinois, and purchased 500 acres of Section 3, Old Town Township, McLean Co., upon which he located, and engaged in farming and stock-raising for four years, when he disposed of his farm for $25,500 cash, and, with his family removed to Bloomington, and purchased a residence on East Washington street, where he engaged in loaning money, and, in the spring of 1871, he purchased his present place of 300 acres, upon Sec. 6, where he has since lived and followed the business of farming, stock-raising and loaning money. His marriage with Hulda E. Burke was celebrated in New York March 13, 1856. She was born in Allen Co., Ind., April 6, 1834. They were the parents of seven children, of whom six are now living—Byron R., May E., Charles O., Sada I., Reed and Clara A.; the deceased died at three years of age. The children all make their home with their parents.

He was born Abt. 1778 in Burkes or Wilkes County, North Carolina, and died July 28, 1820 in Pall Mall, Fentress County, Tennessee.

Notes for MARY VAUGHAN: RECORDS ON VAUGHAN CONNECTIONS:

It seems there was an Evans family reunion a few years back, and someonewho attended gave Jim Gates a copy of the records that were circulatedthat day. Jim sent it to me, and it shows the following data:

MARY VAUGHAN, daughter of WILLIAM VAUGHAN, born 1779, Virginia.

MARY VAUGHAN married JAMES EVANS - September 14, 1802, Hawkins County, Tennessee

(Mary stated she was married in the home of her father, WILLIAM VAUGHAN)

Their first son, JESSE EVANS, was born in 1803, Hawkins County, Tennessee, and Jesse's fifth child FERIBY EVANS was born in 1840.

James Evans was listed near William Vaughan, Sr., John Vaughan, and William Vaughan, Jr. on the 1812 Tax Lists of Hawkins County, Tennessee. All appeared on the list taken by Wm. Nichols.

After his discharge from the War of 1812, James and Mary (Vaughan) Evans moved to White County, Tennessee, with her parents, where in 1816, Jame Evans witnessed an Indenture for WILLIAM VAUGHAN.

James Evans died on 28 July 1820, in Fentress County, Tennessee, and his widow MARY EVANS continued on the Census of White and Van Buren counties, Tennessee. The Evans' were back and forth between what arenow Van Buren (formerly White) and Fentress counties, TN. Mary died inAugust of 1873, Fentress County, Tennessee.

The piece of paper (circulated at the Evans Reunion) says Mary's brother, WILLIAM VAUGHAN, JR., age 40-50, was on the 1830 Census of what is now Fentress County, Tennessee.

Attached to this piece of paper (at the Evans Reunion) was Lewis E.Vaughan's history of WILLIAM AND FEREBY VAUGHAN. Beverly Neises

Here is the note from Freddie Todd about Benjamin & Cherubia living with the Andersons. It doesn't specifically say Isaac; Jane Anderson, but they arethe only old Anderson couple it could have been. It isn't dated, but it's his (Freddie's) handwriting. Grandpap is what Freddie always called, Benjamin Vaughan.

"Ben, Cherubia and two more elderly people by the name of Anderson lived together in the house on the little creek. I have heard old timers tell it.Said Grandpap kept goats. When he would come home, you could hear him callout, "come, Grandpap is home". The goats would come out of the hills and over the rail fence."

Another note:

"Lewis Vaughan stated Benjamin Vaughan was not a extensive land owner like the rest of the Vaughans. He should take a second look at Grandpap's landholdings. Mickey Vaughan states Ben Vaughan bought 160 acres of land from his Uncle Daniel Vaughan before he moved to Huntsville - the beginning of his political career."

"Evidently Ben like the Clifty area better. Here he established his home. Owned some of the better valley farm which makes up the War Eagle Basin.Here he raised his children and grandchildren. Here was the village of Clifty, a flourishing village with a drug store, a harness shop, three or four general stores, hardware store, three doctors, post office, hotel,stables, and mill, and later a canning factory."

--- From Peggy Hermann 1-15-2001

This story taken from "Clifty and the Two Hillbilly Kids Growin' Old" by Fred Todd.

p. 4 - "Grandpap (Benjamin) Vaughan lived southwest of the little village of Clifty. He said he was plowing corn one day and heard a pig squealing down toward the spring. He decided to go down and see what the trouble was.Harness in those days was called plough gears. It consisted of harnesschains, back band lines, and collars. He said he unfastened the hame string, taken the collar off, and laid them on the plow. He got on the old mare, and he and his old hound went to see what was going on. As they were going down the path or trail toward the spring, a panther jumped out of a tree. It had the pig up in the tree eating it alive! The panther landed on the old mare right behind him! As you might guess, right then and there the old mare shedded Grandpap and the panther! The old hound ran away,leaving Grandpap and the panther in the trail. Grandpap said he was afraid to run,so he confronted the vicious animal. He said it would growl with it's ears laid back like it was going to jump on him. When it growled, he would growl back like it did. He would just look it in the eyes and growl. Finally it began to back away from him and growl. He would growl and back away too. At last the panther ran, and he ran too!"

As a "boomer," I've tried to write a book with my own best posts, My views are explained in my values and attitude; for example, In College, while taking a creativity test and had "crossed double-bold lines, in a interview of my professor in creativity, while in a student "teacher's" class. Showing me the test results: He said" ...I don't know what crossing those bold double lines means, but no one in all may classes (he's was older and taught for years) has ever crossed them when doing their drawing.
Well, it didn't mean much then, but over the years I've often have said to myself, Oh, oh you've crossed those double lines and it now become my motto.
Maybe it's because it's my directness, spunk, puns using an artist creativity, individual writing style?
All experiences in life make you successful, some I get it from experiences of my migrating poor family because of me being so isolated from the world's politeness, and politicalness, the world and of such manners that would hinder me from not having strength and courage to "cross double lines" if need be throughout my mission here.
My parents were truly honest, full of integrity, and never complain about their circumstance's and loved me their only daughter. I hope I make them proud as I am of them.
The reason I started these six blogs was because I became very sick after having no illnesses at home using good simple poor foods and on mom's simple remedies at home. I married into a family so different, then divorced, five children,on Medicate and having to use their drugs that changed my health. I gain weight, diabetes, asthma, (High-functioning Bi Polar (LOL) that is an "effective disorder," from allergies) (a stroke from a hernia surgery that left me in a vegit state of existences for a while.
AFTER THIS EXPERIENCE: I decided to go back to my basic training. I added School of Herbology ; getting me from the awful state to the use of herbs and mild plant foods. I still have some of my weight prob. diabetes and asthma but, they are so much better. The hernia from all the C-section is back...so I'm still search because I'm 90 % in a wheel-chair: even so... cheer, God Bless I'm recovering still.

Biography

She graduated from Vassar College in 1946. On October 26, 1946, at St. Paul's Church, in Greenwich, Connecticut, Nancy Bush married Alexander B. Ellis II (1922–1989), an executive with insurance firm Fairfield & Ellis (which merged into Corroon & Black,[2] now a part of Willis Group Holdings Ltd.). Wedding guests included James Buckley, John V. Lindsay, John Chafee and Nancy's brother George;[3] Office of Strategic Services agent William B. Macomber, Jr. was best man.[4] She had weekly lunches with her nephew George W. Bush while he attended Harvard School of Business.[5]

Nancy and Alexander Ellis (1922-1989) had a daughter Nancy and three sons, Alexander, John and Josiah.[6]

Political activities

Although she had been a liberal Democrat and an environmentalist who actively fundraised for the NAACP and co-chaired the New England section of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund,[7] she joined the Republican Party in 1988 when her brother ran for the presidency.[8] In September 2004 she visited London, Paris[5] and Frankfurt[1] on behalf of Republicans Abroad in an effort to encourage United States Republicans living in Europe to register and vote for that year's general election.[9]

Volunteer and charitable activities

Nancy Bush-Ellis has long volunteered with the Boston United South End Settlement House, of which she is an honorary director.[10] She has also volunteered with the New England Medical Center,[11] the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the New England Conservatory of Music[12]

As a board member of the Massachusetts Audubon Society,[7] a group that has been critical of the Bush administration's widespread encouragement of industry self-regulation,[13] Ellis led fundraising efforts[7] to establish Belize's Rio Bravo Conservation and Management Area[14] and the environmental conservation program Programme for Belize.[14] She is also a member of the nongovernmental organization Pact.[7]

State of Tennessee County of Henderson

On this 27th day of July, A.D. 1853, personally appeared before me the undersigned, a Justice of the Peace in and for the County and State aforesaid Dorcas Muns, aged about 80 years, who being first duly sworn doth, on her oath, declare that she is the daughter of Joseph Massey, Who Was a Private in the Company Commanded by Capt. Joseph Rhodes he, the said Joseph Massey was mustered into service at the Cross Roads in Duplin County in the State of North Carolina, that the said Joseph Massey substituted in said roads company in the place of John Hammon and that he, the said Joseph Massey served until peace was declared or thereabouts, and that he died before or shortly after being discharged, before he reached home, on the Fever he contracted whilst in service leaving a widow and 6 children. Said widow, Bathia Massey died in the year 1847, about the last June leaving 2 children to wit Dorcas Muns and Stephen Massey. She further declares that the said Stephen Massey is [much of the remaining portion of this document is illegible due to having been written over]... Stephen Massey, to which the services of their father and his death in the line of his duty and service of his country entitles him.

She makes this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the Pension to which her mother is entitled, from the close of the Revolutionary war until her death.

S/ Dorcas Muns, X her mark

Sworn to and subscribed before me the day and year above written.

Hello, Jo Ann Pearcy married William J. Littlepage on July 08, 1897 in Madison County, Tennessee. They had a son Dewey Percey Littlepage born May 02, 1898 in Jackson, Madison County, Tennessee. William passed in 1929 and Dewey passed in 1968, both are buried in Mount Olive Cemetery, Ft. Worth, Texas. Dewey is my grandfather, family story is that Jo Ann passed when Dewey was about 2 or 3 years of age. They lived in Arkansas for a while and that is where Jo Ann is supposed to be buried. My grandfather would go back to Tennessee each year to visit his brothers and sisters, I also know that on some of this visit that he saw family members of his mother Jo Ann. Hope this helps some.
Jack

Jo Ann PEARCY Littlepage wife of William Joseph LITTLEPAGE

Posted by: Gayle Brown Ball (ID 9873) Date: April 13, 2005 at 19:56:19

I am researching the Pearcy/Piercy family of Madison Co.,TN. IGI has that Joe Ann Pearcy m. W.J. Littlepage 7-8-1897 in Madison Co.,TN.

I am trying to determine dob, dod, place of death/burial and parentage of Jo Ann PEARCY. I believe that she was the daughter of John J. PEARCY & Nancy MAY of Madison Co.,TN. (Madison CO.,TN census with John Pearcy as: 1860 Ann 3 F; 1870 J. 10 M; & 1880 Joseph A. F daughter 22)

William Joseph Littlepage & family appear to be found in 1900 TN, Madison, Dist 15 Jackson-ward 2 ed-107 10B line 86 162/173. Census is very hard to read...only Litt of the last name is readable. First names are also hard to read, husband b. 9-1847 52 TN, wife: 10-1857 42 TN marx3 1/1 child
Dora dau 2-1885 15 TX
Pony son 6-1887 12 TX
John J son 1889 10 TX
J??? son 1892 7 TX
Ruben son 1894 5 TX
???? son 1898 2 ??

I have seen info on internet that Jo Ann Pearcy/Percy had a son Dewey who appears to be the 2 yr old in 1900 census.
